Re : Update Lecture Conditions

Dear LSPR students,

In connection with the current situation of the COVID-19 pandemic in Indonesia, of course we are all very concerned and are feeling the impact. Therefore, based on government decisions in implementing our shared health and safety protocols, lectures have been transferred to online classes.

In carrying out the online lectures, of course, LSPR continues to guarantee the quality of education, with LMS facilities, online lectures – face-to-face with lecturers sessions, and continue to provide administrative services. In addition to supporting online lectures, LSPREDIA with the internet providers; Indosat 30GB and XL are free for 2GB quota/day until 30 April 2020, and the Umeet Me platform is free from Telkom.

Therefore, we apologize if the request for tuition relief cannot be fulfilled by LSPR for now, with the following explanation:

The Rational

1. This condition is a force majeure or an emergency condition, we all certainly do not want to and be forced to carry out teaching and learning activities online.
2. The rights of students to receive education and administrative services continue to run, so that students do not lose their right to study, be taught, evaluated and given an assessment to pass the course.
3. Tri Dharma activities of tertiary institutions continue to run, namely: education and teaching, research and community service.
4. The services to students such as student service, SGO, Library, student activities are packaged online, Career Coaching from Career Work Centers, Academic Consultation by Academic Counselors, Psychologists and student activities are packaged in the online form.
5. Savings due to online policies are not significant, only limited to a partial reduction of electricity costs. Far below those of the cost of human resources and operational costs that we continue to spend, even in these difficult conditions.

The solution

The specific policies given by LSPR in this emergency period are:

1. An alternative in the form of a deadline for payment of tuition or early bird system.
2. Providing relief in instalments for those who have difficulty in paying over a reasonable period.
3. Providing an extension of study time of 1 (one) semester for students whose study period ends in the even semester 2019/2020 (has taken 14 semesters), to not be subject to bleaching fees.

For this specific policy, students can contact Mr. Zhafran Tsany Yudizon or LSPR finance hotline no. 0815-1021-0121 / 22.

Thus we convey this, hopefully, this can be understood and provide benefits for us all. Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

May we all be in good health and always in the protection of God Almighty!

Yours Faithfully,

Dr. Andre Ikhsano M.Si
Rector
